YOUR PARTNER OF CHOICE FOR END-TO-END ELECTRONICS MANUFACTURING SOLUTIONS

NOTE offers complete solutions to our customers, from prototyping and NPI with production engineering support to volume manufacturing and after sales support. We pride ourselves on our expert technical competence and flexibility which enables us to meet our customer's technical and commercial requirements throughout the entire lifecycle of the product. As part of NOTE Group, our network of sites offers scalability and support across Europe and Asia. This, together with our global sourcing and local purchasing strategies we deliver the optimum value to our customers.

OUR EXPERTISE

ADDING VALUE AT EVERY STEP OF THE SUPPLY CHAIN

CONCEPT

The journey from idea to design to new product introduction (NPI) needs to be efficient and effective. NOTE's experience and professionalism helps ensure customer's designs are optimised for volume manufacturing within the project deadlines.

SUPPLY

NOTE's end-to-end manufacturing includes material sourcing and procurement, prototyping and volume manufacturing. We manage complex supply chains, people, equipment and factories so that our customers don't have to – leaving them to stay focused on ideas, products and markets.

SUPPORT

We understand that our work does not end with manufacturing. With no two customers being the same, NOTE will tailor delivery and support solutions that meet your fulfilment and logistics requirements. Customer service wraps around every part of what we do.
